

ABSTRACT

Multimers of plant profilin or functionally equivalent peptides are a preferred form for diagnosis and treatment of allergies. Natural and synthetic whole molecules or fragments that represent the multimers are used 1) as hyposensitizing agents for 5 treatment of allergies and 2) for screening patients to determine profilin allergenicity

10084638.022702